

LPC News for the week of December 14, 2025

Welcome! Thank you for worshipping with us!

Whether you are a regular churchgoer or are visiting for the very first time we are so glad you are here! We hope you will register your presence in worship with us in the black friendship pads, located in the pew racks toward the center aisle, so we can keep in touch.

LPWS Book Fair: The Lakeview Presbyterian Weekday School will hold its annual book fair beginning Sunday, December 14th after worship. You can also shop Monday through Thursday and Friday morning. This fundraiser helps us purchase classroom supplies through the Scholastic Dollars program. There will be books for children of all ages. Come shop for someone you love!

Volunteers Needed: LPWS is seeking volunteers to come assist with the book fair. Sign up for a 2 hour shift any time Monday 12/15 through Friday 12/19 between 8am-4pm. Contact lakeviewweekdayschool@gmail.com.

Adult Sunday School Classes: For two thousand years, Christians have turned to the story and message of John the Baptist in the weeks leading up to Christmas. The Adult Library Class, which meets at 9:15, is currently reading Prepare the Way of the Lord by Adam Hamilton, which explores the Advent themes of John's life and Ministry and how John calls all followers of Jesus prepare their hearts and lives for Jesus' Coming.

On November 30th, the Fellowship Hall class will begin a study of Names for the Messiah, an Advent study by Old Testament scholar Walter Bruggemann. This study examines the prophecies in Isaiah 9. Each week we will discuss one of these names: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace. What were the expectations of the people in Isaiah's day? Did Jesus fulfill these prophecies? All are invited to join our discussions at 9:30 in the Fellowship Hall.

Longest Night Worship Service: Join us at Parkway Presbyterian on December 21st at 6:00pm for a Longest Night Worship Service. See Kelly Couch if you are interested in joining the handchime choir for this service.

Christmas Eve at LPC: Join us for our annual family-friendly Christmas Eve worship service of scripture, carols and candlelight at 4:30pm Wednesday December 24. Helpers of all ages are needed to assist with this special service! Contact Jennie Guidry by Sunday December 21 if you would like to participate jennieserra@gmail.com.

Pastor Alex Out Dec. 25 - Jan. 2: Pastor Alex will be out on vacation from Thursday December 25 through Friday Jan. 2. Thank you to Ruling Elder Jennifer Beasley for filling the pulpit on Sunday Dec. 28!

Helping Immigrant Families: At their meeting on December 10, the LPC Session voted to partner with administrators of local schools to support families who are afraid to leave their homes during the ongoing immigration sweeps in our region and who need help getting groceries and gifts this holiday season. If you would like to donate money or food/gifts to support these families, you may leave donations in the church office or give a check payable to LPC with "Immigrant Family Support" in the memo line.
