

LPC News for the week of November 30, 2025

Welcome! Thank you for worshipping with us! Whether you are a regular churchgoer or are visiting for the very first time we are so glad you are here! We hope you will register your presence in worship with us in the black friendship pads, located in the pew racks toward the center aisle, so we can keep in touch.

LPWS Book Fair: The Lakeview Presbyterian Weekday School will hold its annual book fair beginning Sunday, December 14th after worship. You can also shop Monday through Thursday and Friday morning. This fundraiser helps us purchase classroom supplies through the Scholastic Dollars program. There will be books for children of all ages. Come shop for someone you love!

Angel Tree Gifts for PCHAS Families

Would you like to help provide Christmas gifts for children of parents who are working hard to make ends meet this Christmas season? Find the Christmas tree in the LPC office entrance lobby. Each ornament is numbered and labeled with a gift idea for a child in a client family for Presbyterian Children's Homes and Services. Choose an ornament from the tree, find the line that corresponds to the ornament in the sign-up booklet next to the tree, and fill out the information (so we know who is responsible for which gift). Bring your UNWRAPPED gift back to the church by Dec. 7.

Adult Sunday School Classes: For two thousand years, Christians have turned to the story and message of John the Baptist in the weeks leading up to Christmas. The Adult Library Class, which meets at 9:15, is currently reading Prepare the Way of the Lord by Adam Hamilton, which explores the Advent themes of John's life and Ministry and how John calls all followers of Jesus prepare their hearts and lives for Jesus' Coming.

On November 30th, the Fellowship Hall class will begin a study of Names for the Messiah, an Advent study by Old Testament scholar Walter Bruggemann. This study examines the prophecies in Isaiah 9. Each week we will discuss one of these names: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace. What were the expectations of the people in Isaiah's day? Did Jesus fulfill these prophecies? All are invited to join our discussions at 9:30 in the Fellowship Hall.

Joint Worship Sunday December 7: On the 2nd Sunday of Advent, LPC will host other greater-NOLA

PCUSA congregations for a joint Lessons and Carols worship service, featuring a voice choir and handbell choir made up of members from all the congregations. The voice choir will rehearse on Wed. 12/3 and Thurs. 12/4 from 6:30-8:00pm at LPC. Contact Tom Brown to participate! thomasbrown723@gmail.com. After the service there will be a time of fellowship and food. Contact Reuben Chrestman to help show hospitality at this special service! mchres3898@aol.com.

Longest Night Worship Service: Join us at Parkway Presbyterian on December 21st at 6:00pm for a Longest Night Worship Service. See Kelly Couch if you are interested in joining the handchime choir for this service.
